Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is the Brackett Refugee Education Foundation Scholarship?
A: The scholarship provides support for students with an historic connection to Myanmar for school in Thailand. The scholarship can be used for a university degree (undergraduate only) or vocational (upper vocational).

Q: How much is the scholarship for?
A: The scholarship covers a portion of the tuition and fees for a Thai university. It is not a full scholarship. The scholarship amount is set by the university, meaning if the university is less expensive, you will be able to pay for more of your scholarship. After you apply we can provide an estimate of the total scholarship amount you might receive. A typical award is between 12,500 and 25,000 Thai baht per term.

Q: How long is the scholarship for?
A: Students receive the scholarship for the length of the degree program, with certain conditions. Students must maintain a high GPA and communicate regularly with the Brackett Foundation. Students who want to transfer to another program or university must discuss their plan with their T-rep to determine if their scholarship is still eligible.

Q: Who is eligible?
A: The Brackett Foundation scholarship is an award for individuals with historic connections to Myanmar. While all students are eligible to apply, the scholarship is targeted at certain students.

1. You are from Myanmar or a family that is born in Myanmar.
2. You have an excellent school record from Myanmar and Thai or refugee schools.
3. You are admitted to school in Thailand or have a very strong possibility of being admitted. All students MUST be admitted prior to receiving a scholarship.
